Summary of Main Duties

The London Programme Manager, reporting to the Programme Director, is responsible for planning and delivering the range of snow-sports and life-skills focused youth activities run by the Snow-Camp London programme throughout the year.

Experience of working successfully with disadvantaged young people in a range of settings will be essential to the post. Passion for snow sports and supporting young people generally will be a huge advantage!

Project management skills, logistical skills, managing relationships, communication and presentation skills, experience of delivering life-skills or similar courses to motivate young people, excellent IT skills – these will all make up the job.

This is a key post requiring at least 2 years' experience involving the above skills, together with proven project management and budgeting experience.

Key tasks

In consultation with the Programme Director, to be responsible for delivering and developing Snow-Camp London's full snowsports focused journey of youth programmes – namely First Tracks, Graduate, Excel, Uplift, Youth Forum, and with running the Snow-Camp London Apprenticeship Programme – as described on the Snow-Camp website.

Full training from the Programme Director will be given on all specifics, but generally this includes:

- Providing effective leadership for the delivery of Snow-Camp programme, building a strong and well-bonded team with staff, apprentices and volunteers.
- Line managing the Assistant Programme Manager, ensuring that they have a clear personal development plan and objectives.

- Supporting your team made up of the Assistant Programme Manager, Apprentices and Youth Volunteers in setting up Snow-Camp programmes, advising on behavioural, safeguarding and staff management issues.
- Supporting the Assistant Programme Manager to effectively manage 6 London apprentices on their 1-year Snow-Camp Apprenticeship programme. This includes ensuring that they are organising their snowsports industry work placements, working in partnership with their NVQ tutor at the Central YMCA and ensuring they are involved and supported working on all Snow-Camp programmes as part of your staff team.
- Ensuring all programmes run smoothly and effectively by leading the delivery of each programme – managing venue instructors, guest speakers, apprentices, youth staff, sessional staff and volunteers as required.
- Recruiting young people for each programme through developing high-quality youth project partnerships. Undertake visits to youth projects, promotion through email to all relevant youth programmes and services and presenting at key stakeholder meetings on youth service provision. Finding new young people in your area to support by Snow-Camp will be key.
- Ensuring all youth groups involved in all activities are well informed of the process leading up to the programme they are attending, understand their requirements in terms of consent forms, paperwork etc and feel fully involved in the planning period.
- Provide logistical direction and management as required on areas including coach bookings, instructor management, residential accommodation and venue management etc, ensuring that these are delivered within budget.
- Managing programme administration, including finances, budgets for each programme, invoicing, Service Level Agreements and keeping an overview on all costs associated with programmes.
- Be responsible for the management and delivery of trips and overseas residential's (Snow-Camp Excel, Apprenticeship & Youth Forum Residential's) as part of Snow-Camp programmes. Including undertaking all the necessary risk assessments.
- To manage and improve the life-skills and accreditation aspects of every programme in liaison with the Programme Director.
- To be involved with the development of relevant materials and posters as required for each programme in liaison with the Programme Director.
- Liaising with relevant funders as required to satisfy requirements as stipulated in funding awarded to Snow-Camp for delivery of programme activities.
- Using the Upshot online database system to keep excellent records of all young people who have attended and benefited from Snow-Camp programmes. Whilst ensuring all monitoring and evaluation is carried out to demonstrate impact of Snow-Camp programmes.
- Keeping Snow-Camp database e-Tapestry up to date with new contacts made and invoices issued.
